

Bailey Bunny

Bailey is one sweet bunny, who loves to cuddle up with her friends and give them sweet bunny kisses. She loves wholesome food. She was green before it was cool. She was born to a vegan family, growing up on a diet of strawberries and carrots. Her favorite past time? Hopping with her bunny friends through the Farmer Scott's fields, of course. Her second favorite past time? Dancing! She's a master of the Bunny Hop and is currently enrolled in Hip Hop classes at the local dance academy.
