

Gertie & Garth Goat

Gertie and Garth Goat are best friends and have been hanging out together on Uncle Fred's farm since they were just kids. They are both naturally curious and love exploring the farm! They enjoy tasting whatever they can get their mouth on... flowers, hay, cans, you name it! Many of the Animal House critters would tell you Gertie and Garth are their biggest supporters! The two goats pride themselves on telling their friends, "I Goat Your Back," and they always have kind, encouraging words for the other critters.
