

Kyle the Cool Cat

Kyle is one "kewl" cat. Like many Portlanders, he sports a mustache! He lives in the heart of Portland. He left a small rural farm three years ago for the Pacific Northwest with dreams of playing his banjo for city crowds, which he does every weekend. In his free time, he loves hanging out with his "hip" cat friends while drinking organic milk and listening to independent bands. He considers himself a foodie. He's really into the seafood scene and is on the hunt for the perfect Salmon!
